SUBJECT: MALAWI: BRIEFING ON P5+1 TALKS WITH IRAN DELIVERED

REF: A. STATE 103218
1B. 07 LILONGWE 856

11. (SBU) DCM delivered (reftel A) briefing to GOM Ministry of Foreign Affairs Principal Secretary Anthony Livuza Oct. 120. Livuza acknowledged that the Iranian government had an obligation to provide full access to IAEA inspectors to the new enrichment facility. He added that it was incumbent on the Iranians to negotiate in good faith on the proposal concerning fuel assemblies for the TRR, particularly given the Obama Administration's new approach toward Iran.

12. (SBU) Concerning Malawi's own ties with Iran, Livuza remarked that the agreements signed in 2007 (reftel B) during a visit by the Iranian Foreign Minister had resulted in little of consequence. "We have nothing going on with Iran," he concluded.
